These beautiful hand-carved Stations of the Cross were rescued from an antique dealer in the streets of New York City. They are about 100 years old. For many decades they remained in an abandoned hospital/nursing home.
In our humble opinion, these 14 Wounded Stations of the Cross, are perhaps even more reflective of Our Wounded Lord and His Mother, especially during the times we are presently living through. It seems that no one escapes from this earthly Valley of Tears.

We invite you to spend some meditative time, uniting your sufferings with those of Jesus and Mary as you make the Way of the Cross. May the time you spend in prayer and meditation lead you to the Stations of the Cross that await your presence within your Church.

In the late 1990’s, we meet with Irving C. “Francis” Hoyle in Escanaba, Michigan. We wanted to send him, the Stations of the Cross, but he took a vow never to accept money or gifts for his ministry work. However, we were able to send them to his wife Gail. We believe God was pleased with this decision.
